

Seminar Series

Spring 2005 Speakers

12:15-1:15 p.m.

MPC Seminar Room - 70 Willey Hall

January 31

Nathanael Lauster, Ph.D.
Minnesota Population Center

“Measuring Sexual Revolution in the United States, 1880-2000”

February 14

Myron Orfield, J.D.
Institute on Race and Poverty, School of Law

“American Metropolitics: The New Suburban Reality”

February 28

Catherine Fitch and Ronald Goeken, Ph.D.
Minnesota Population Center

“The Rise of Cohabitation in the United States: New Historical Estimates”

March 7

Kathleen Call, Ph.D.
School of Public Health

“Why Survey Counts of Public Program Enrollment are Significantly Lower than Administrative Counts? The Case of Medicaid”

March 28

Samuel L. Myers, Ph.D.
HHH Institute of Public Affairs

“Decomposition of Racial Earnings Gaps between Single and MultiRace Populations”

April 11

Dennis A. Ahlburg, Ph.D.
Carlson School of Management

“The Determinants of Healthy Longevity Among the Oldest-Old in China”

May 2

Claudia Goldin, Ph.D.
Department of Economics, Harvard University

“The Homecoming of College Women”