

Fall 2007 Speakers

12:15-1:15pm in the MPC Seminar Room (50 Willey Hall)

September 10

“Intergenerational Families in Developing Countries”
Steve Ruggles, Ph.D. and Misty Heggeness, MSW, MPP
Minnesota Population Center, University of Minnesota

September 24

“Before their Time: Child Labor and Health”
David L. Parker, MD, MPH
Department of Occupational Medicine, Park Nicollet Clinic, and Environmental Health Sciences, University of Minnesota

October 8

“Cohabitation and Children’s Living Arrangements:
New Estimates from the United States”
Sheela Kennedy, Ph.D.
Minnesota Population Center, University of Minnesota

October 29

“The Effects of Elementary and Secondary School Characteristics on Educational and Occupational Attainments across the Life Course”
Rob Warren, Ph.D.
Department of Sociology, University of Minnesota

November 12

“‘Check All That Apply’ and Then What?
Working with the New Race Question”
Carolyn Liebler, Ph.D.
Department of Sociology and Minnesota Population Center,
University of Minnesota

November 19

“Personalizing Lynch Victims:
Using Census Records to Study the History of Southern Mob Violence”
Stewart Tolnay, Ph.D.
Department of Sociology, University of Washington

December 3

“Early Findings from the Flexible Work and Well-Being Study”
Phyllis Moen, Ph.D. and Erin Kelly, Ph.D.
Department of Sociology and Minnesota Population Center,
University of Minnesota